– As a freshman, the consensus is that Doug Beaudoin is the type of

guy who can play safety at the next level. As a sophomore, he's being counted on to set the tone on a defense that has the potential to be one of the best in the conference this season. It's no easy task. But the Beavers aren't strangers to being counted on as they enter their third season under defensive coordinator Don

Pellum. "They really don't like to rest," Pellum said. "As we've seen in the past two years, we've really tried to challenge them early. We think it's prepared them for the rigors of a Pac-12 game. And if you play like your first game, you're going to have a hard time." Beaudoin will likely see the bulk of the defensive snaps at safety in 2015. The 6-foot-3, 200-pound athlete is a physical competitor who has great instincts in the run game. He was a second-team all-league pick after collecting 60 tackles, including four sacks, last season. After Beaudoin, Pellum said the secondary is probably as deep as it's ever been. Returning starters include Tommy Togiaai at corner, Kenny Adams and RJ Williams at safety, and a pair of backups at nickel back. Washington, an obvious top-10 team in the preseason AP poll, has said it's going to be a 1-2 punch in the secondary, and it will be Beaudoin

---
